Wilson Puts Winner Across in Saratoga Special From Classy Field.

THE FINN AT LONG ODDS

Saratoga Springs, N. Y., Aug. 12.—It was a bad day for the Whitney stable to-day, two big stakes in which Whitney entries were favorites, going to outsiders. Wilson's Campfire, at 3 to 1, captured the Saratoga Special, doing the six furlongs in 1:13 1-5 and demonstrating that he is the best 2-year-old of the season, besides winning for his owner \$4.825 of the purse and a \$1.000 piece of gold plate. Six classy colts faced the barrier. Tumbler and Hardcash, the Whitney entry, ruling favorites at 11 to 30. Campfire jumped into the lead at the drop of the flag and, though hustled a little at the end, won by two lengths.  $I_{\rm B}$  the champion handicap another wallop hit the talent right in the region of the bankroll, which is a tender spot. The Finn, a 12 to 1 outsider, crossed the finish line first after Pennant, the 7 to 10 favorite, had made all the running to the last lap. The Finn passed him like a wild horse, going on to an easy victory in 1.32.4-5. Strombolo, the second choice, took place by half a length.
